

(c)—

(1) Representation of land owners are kept pending as in some cases the lands have been occupied by the ryots and their representatives have not been disposed off by the Land Tribunals.

(2) In some cases the lands, are Inam lands and compensation amount has not been paid as the lands were not cultivated.

(3) Compensation has been credited as 'Revenue Deposit' and the same will be paid after the disposal of such cases.

(4) In some cases, the quantum of compensation amount is being very low, the concerned persons have not come over to receive the amount in spite of their being asked to receive the same.

However, all the cases mentioned above regarding payment of compensation amount would be disposed off early by giving notices to the concerned persons.
